CLASS OF 1962

FOREWORD

As the momentous day of graduation approached, our minds were filled with memories of our eventful days here at East Huntingdon High School: how much we learned; how hard we worked; how much fun we had. Here then is our "Mirror"—a lasting record of those experiences which have been, and always will be, a vital part of our lives.

A Study in Poise

IN MEMORIAM

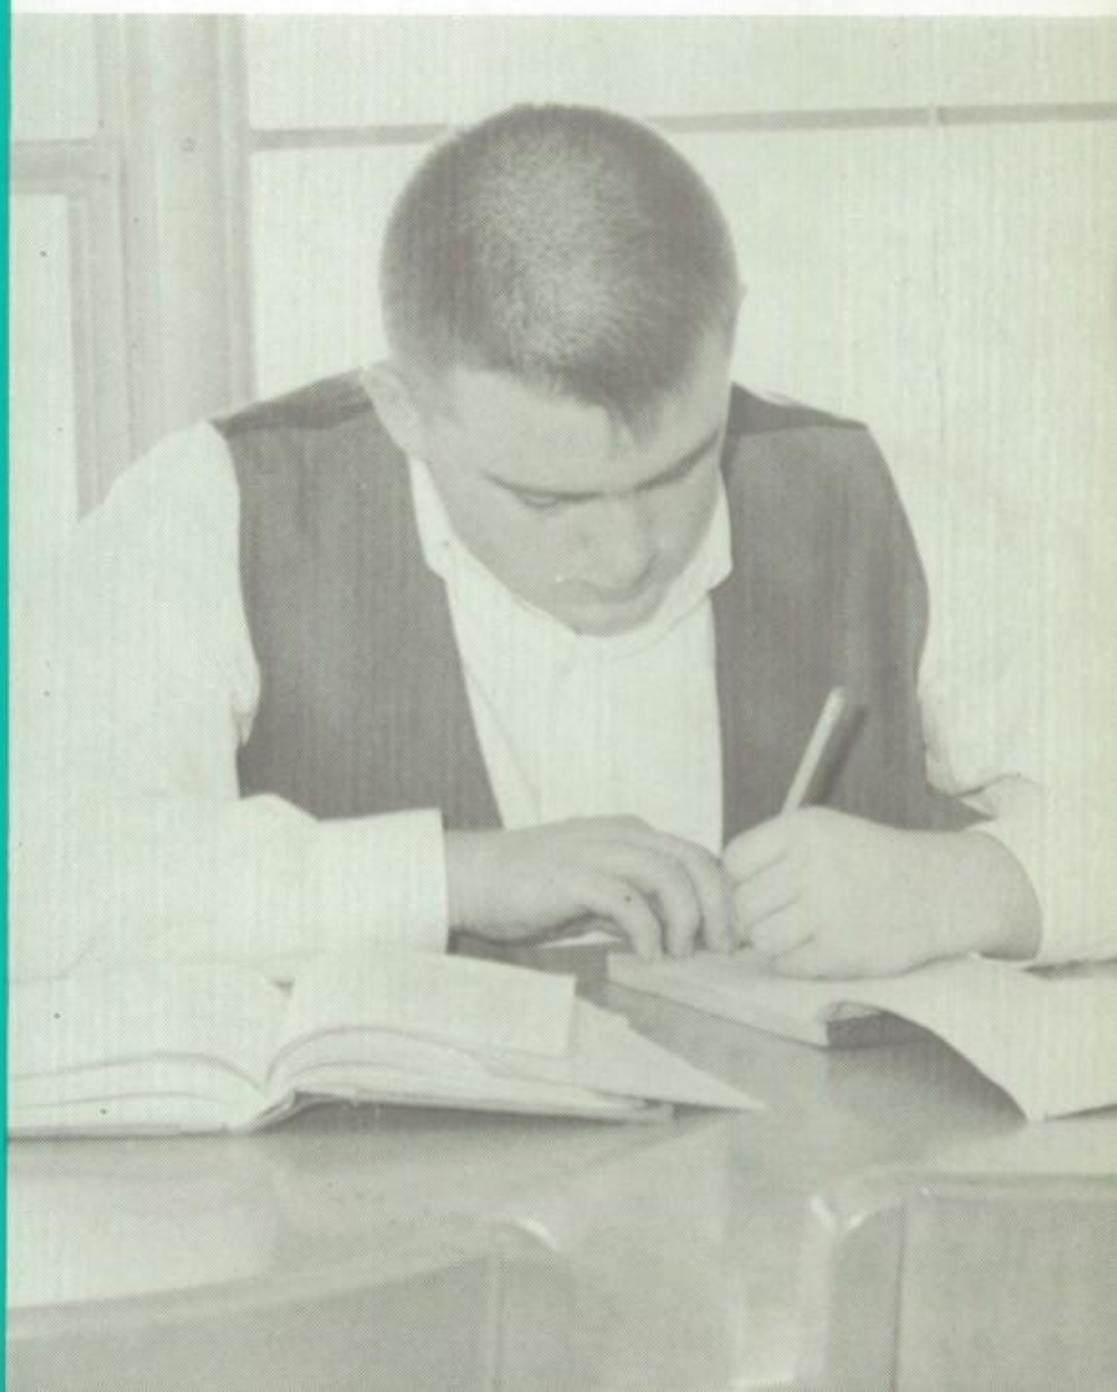

Mary Belle Rose

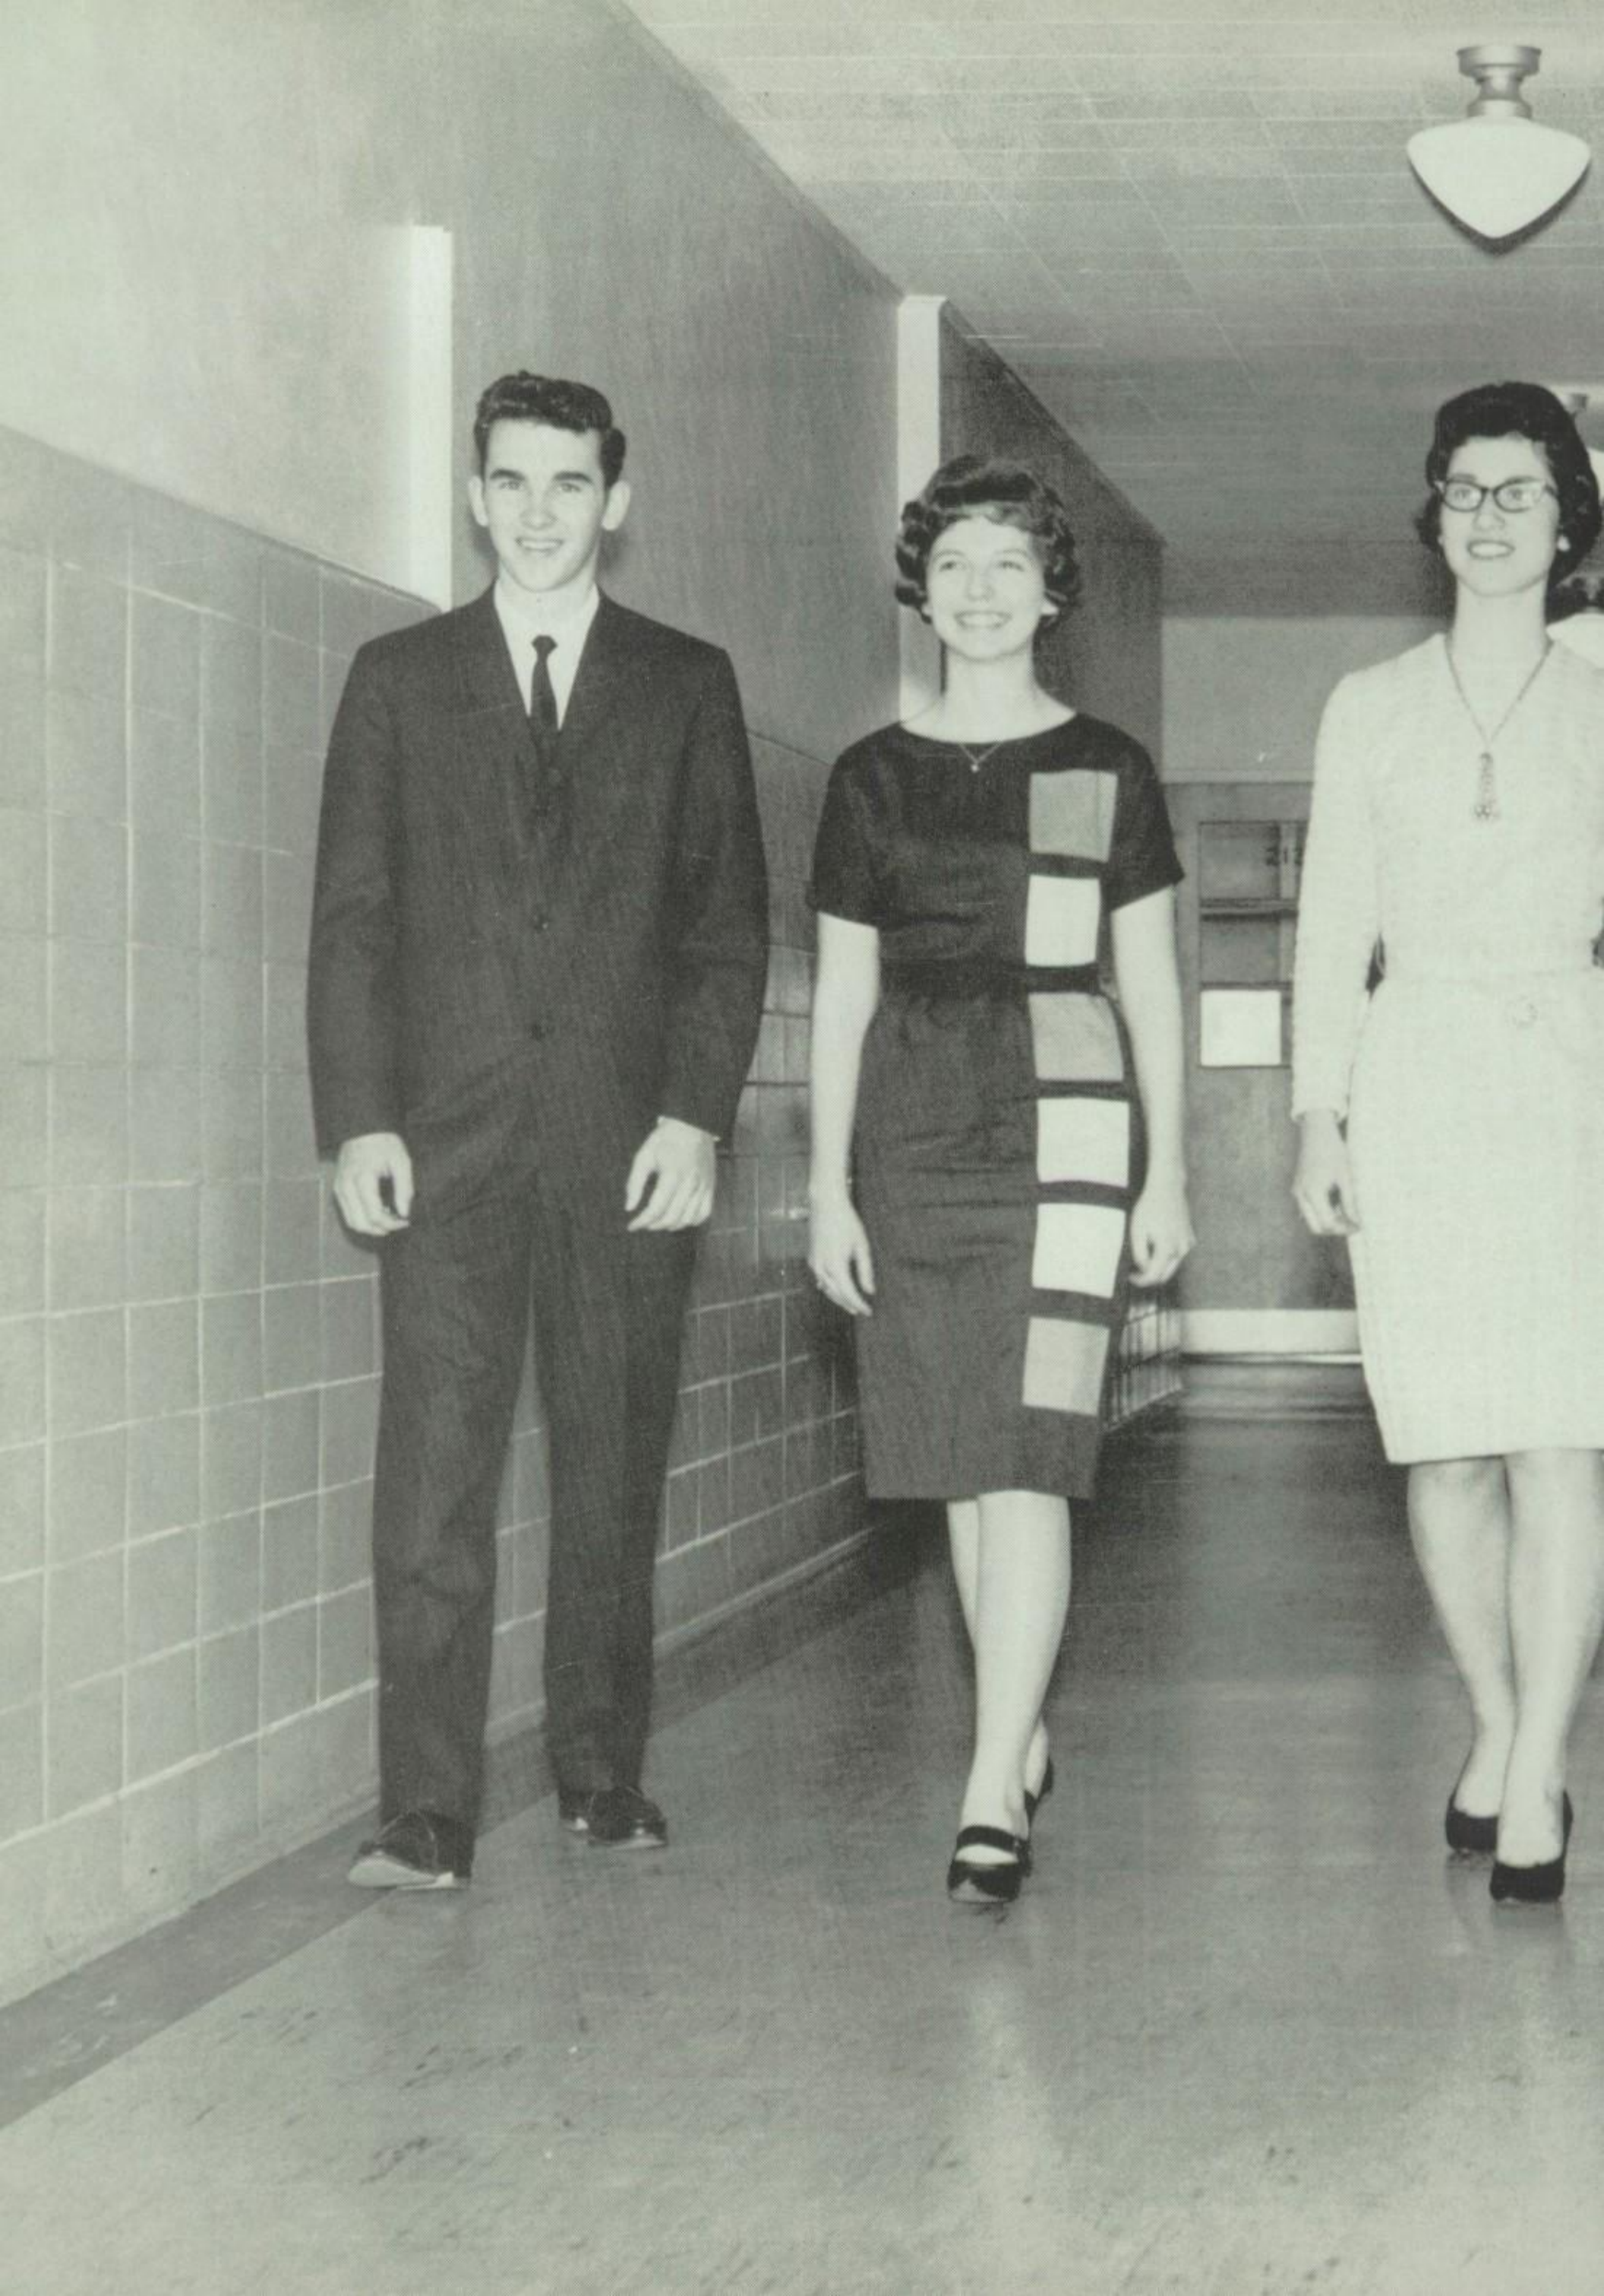

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land;
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be since she lingers there.
And you—oh you, who sorrowfully yearn
For the old-time step, and the glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same, I say,
She is not dead—she is just away.

A Study in Concentration

PEOPLE

Behind the cold, brick walls of our school, a great warmth is generated. This warmth cannot be measured in degrees nor can it be seen as hot coals or a blazing fire. But rather, it is the feeling which one receives the moment he enters the building; for this great warmth is the people within.

Seniors' Thoughts

We, the members of the senior class, feel melancholy when
 We remember the things we've done that we'll never do again.
 As our memories take over, many things we remember well.
 For instance, when we were seventh graders, we used to scream and yell.
 We'd rush through the halls to get to class for fear of being late.
 And when the seniors would pull a trick we'd always take the bait.
 But another year and eighth grade came. Now we knew the score.
 We slowed down on our way to class fearing nothing anymore.
 Soon we were in ninth grade and at last we had a name,
 Being known as "freshmen" we began to pick up fame.

We elected no president but we held a freshman dance,
 Our road to success seemed paved with gold and we were in a trance.
 Our sophomore year proved to be nine great months of fun.
 That year we entered Senior High and looked down on everyone.
 But nothing compared with our junior year, we even had fun raising money.
 We sold, we asked, we begged for cash for our prom which was really a honey.
 Now here we are—we've reached the end—the summit—the peak—the top.
 We're Seniors at last, we've had great fun, and we hate to see it stop.
 But our duty now is to enter a huge, demanding world
 Where countless things await us as a whole new life is unfurled.

ACTIVITIES

Attending meetings, planning assembly programs and staying after school for hours to rehearse a school play are all a memorable part of our high school days. These activities play an important role in our education. For not only do they develop us socially, but they also plant within us the seed of self confidence.
